We network with professional firms, international organizations and governmental agencies to build and maintain a data base of worldwide business and trade opportunities. We identify opportunities on behalf of our customers.

We assist in preparing an information package and business plan.

We help in the negotiation, financial arrangements and execution of the customer objectives.

Our mandate is to serve the needs of our clients by promoting their exposure to business and trade opportunities. Global expansion is not the exclusive domain of the large multinational corporations. Small and mid-size companies also have the chance to take advantage of international marketing opportunities.

We have a proven record and ready to pass it to our customers.

Morey Manor appreciates your need for discrete, expedite service at a reasonable fee.

We are confident that we can facilitate your business and trade objectives.
